HIGH SCHOOL

ALEXANDRA COLLEGE
DUBLIN

HIGH SCHOOL

- As a HS student I was involved in Sport, Young Entrepreneur and creative events.
- As a HS student my parents were separated and travelled a lot for work. So I was pretty bold and hyper as I had a lot of energy which wasn't used correctly.
- Some teachers saw my potential and gave me title of Games Captain and other responsibilities.
- Once found an outlet through Sport and Artistic things I calmed down as I channeled this into something positive.

HIGH SCHOOL

Things I enjoyed in HS

- Sport
- Friends
- Artistic things
- Feeling of home

Things I did not enjoy in HS

- Rules
- Dealing with fame
- Trying to fit in
- Being sensitive

Natasha Rocca Devine:

Having recovered from a car accident at 19, which left Natasha in a coma, suffering a Subarachnoid Brain Haemorrhage, memory loss and many other life-changing effects, 'Awareness' reflects her options to return to balance. Months and years after, having defied the surgeons' predictions for her future, she wishes to share her story and remind us how anything is possible if you have faith, hope and belief in your own strength. Of course, always leaving room for humour. Natasha believes we all have our own special talent(s) that we must honour and we must truly cherish our health and each day. That equality and respect for all is a must and that everything you wish for you can create for yourself, when in balance.

Throughout her book, through her graphics and text, she shares a life's guide of living each day in balance, with 'Awareness' of yourself and the world around you. Covering an array of topics such as; the self-healing practice of Metamorphosis, energy healing, communications, creativity, family, music, strength, success, physical exercise, sport, food, languages, technology, relationships, love, light and many more. Along with many activities to assist you in creating your own balance which will allow you to enjoy each day.

Natasha includes worldwide interviews of people, both known and unknown, including her parents John Devine, football coach and ex-Arsenal F.C. and Ireland footballer and her mother, Michelle Rocca Morrison, Former TV Broadcaster and writer. With 'Awareness' she hopes you will realise the positive effect that you alone, when in balance can make on the world. So, you will fight any fears and live each day and moment in balance, with happiness and light, as you deserve.

NATASHA'S ARTICLES

These articles will be taken from 'Griffiti' magazine, of which I shall be writing for throughout the year. My first articles shall contain an interview with 'Brez', the lead singer and guitarist from the Irish well-known band 'The Blizzards'.

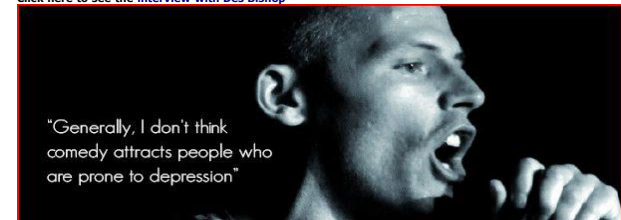

Alongside this, I have launched Griffith College Fashion section. Here you can see my synopsis of Dublin fashion week, Ladies Day Out and Triny and Susannah, who have recently hit Dublin City with their own style. Not to mention, Questions and Answers with some of our own Irish and foreign Designers.

On November 5th, the second edition of 'Griffiti' will be published. In this, I have styled and co-ordinated our shoot with the clothes from 'Blonde Gemini' in New Ross and jewellery from 'Boudoir'. Both of which I have interviewed in our fashion section, along with a catwalk report from the Lara AW/08 Show.

You can visit the Griffiti website at www.griffiti.ie
